

OPEN ACCESS POLICY

The Bulletin publishes research in an open access format on the website of the University of Educational Management.

Users have the free access to read, download, copy and print published content, search for content and reference to published articles, distribute the full text thereof and use it for any legitimate non-commercial purpose (including educational or scientific) with a reference to the authors of the cited paper and the original publication in this Bulletin.