

ARCHIVING

After the publication of the Bulletin, the editorial board provides its mandatory distribution among the specialized libraries of Ukraine allowing libraries to save individual web-journals, regularly checking their web sites for the availability of new published content and archiving this content. The editorial board allows these libraries to create archive journals in order to save and subsequently restore materials in case of loss.

Additionally, all files are periodically archived and stored at the Vernadsky National Library of Ukraine, Kyiv, Ukraine.